

CERTIFICATE IV IN MENTAL HEALTH

CHC43315

What you need to know

Star College Australia is a specialist training provider a training team of experienced community service professionals.

Through this team of industry professionals, you can achieve a nationally accredited qualification CHC43315 Certificate IV in Mental Health.

How does it work?

You will be asked to complete 15 subjects via workbook through face-to-face classes (where numbers are applicable), distance education, blended delivery, or online learning. You choose the methods that suits you.

You may also apply for Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) if you believe you already have the knowledge and skills relevant to a particular unit. An RPL application must be submitted at the time of enrolment and the onus is on the student to provide sufficient, current, valid and authentic evidence against each of the units.

Where gaps in evidence remain – that is that you cannot be considered competent on the evidence provided, gap training will be made available to you.

To achieve this qualification, the student must complete at least 80 hours of work placement as detailed in the assessment requirements of the units of competency.

Online or distance students will be required to attend online e-Classes provided or attend hub workshops when they are provided, to complete any performance requirements.

Successful candidates will need to complete 15 units of competency comprising 11 mandatory core and 4 elective units.

Elective units have been chosen to meet industry standards.
