

DIPLOMA IN MENTAL HEALTH

CHC53315

What you need to know

Star College Australia is a specialist training provider a training team of experienced community service professionals.

Through this team of industry professionals, you can achieve a nationally accredited qualification CHC53315 Diploma in Mental Health.

How does it work?

You will be asked to complete 20 subjects via workbook through face-to-face classes (where numbers are applicable), distance education, blended delivery, or online learning. You choose the methods that suits you.

You may also apply for Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) if you believe you already have the knowledge and skills relevant to a particular unit. An RPL application must be submitted at the time of enrolment and the onus is on the student to provide sufficient, current, valid and authentic evidence against each of the units.

Where gaps in evidence remain – that is that you cannot be considered competent on the evidence provided, gap training will be made available to you.

To achieve this qualification, the student must complete a minimum 160 hours of work placement in an approved setting as detailed in the assessment requirements of the units of competency.

Online or distance students will be required to attend online e-Classes provided or attend hub workshops when they are provided, to complete any performance requirements.

Successful candidates will need to complete 20 units of competency comprising 15 mandatory core and 5 elective units. Elective units have been chosen to meet industry standards.
